

UTAH SECTION

A Message from the Vice President

By Lance Mackie

Spring time is here, a rebirth of the world. Everything is making a new beginning. Just as the trees and flowers are blossoming in the spring sun our IES – Utah Section is blossoming in so many ways. We have been blessed with many busy bees, I would like to thank all the members and chairpersons for the hard work to make our IES section a success.

As our newsletter indicates our upcoming events, I would encourage us all to actively participate in all that we can. If we know someone who would be interested in the Education course being offered, lets remind them and encourage them of the benefits of this important class. The golf tournament, need I say any more? Will the Stevens Sales group take it again? I put a challenge out there for a foursome to be put together and make it a bit more difficult for them to capture a three-peat.

As we get ready to celebrate the 100th year of Lighting let us keep in mind how grateful each one of us are for the way we illuminate (professionally and personally). If the illumination technology has advanced by leaps and bounds in the past, it makes me very excited to see what the future has in store.

The busy bees in our IES section; leaders; members and chairpersons are very devoted and excited in helping all involved in the upcoming events, lets push into spring/summer with a bang and recommit to our friendships and obligations we have made in the past.

Thanks for your continued support in the Utah Section of the IESNA.

Have you always wanted to get your L.C.?

November is coming up fast and that is when the next LC test is going to be offered. There is a study group of IESNA members gathering to prepare for the November test. If you are interested in getting with the group and/or signing up for the test please contact Lance Mackie

Wednesday April 27th is the Next IESNA Luncheon.

We will be taught about asymmetric lighting. You will be able to receive CEU's for your LC Certification and have a great lunch also. See upcoming events on page 3 for more info.

Membership Drive for 2005

By Editor

There are several ways to assist the general membership drive of IESNA. You can support the Golf Tournament, become a bigger part of the IIDA and attend the monthly Luncheons.

The monthly Luncheons are a great way to enrich your employee's view of Lighting Design. Lighting Design is the icing on the cake. It doesn't matter how delicious the cake is, without the beautiful frosting it will be rarely enjoyed to the fullest. Like the poorly frosted cake, even the most beautiful Architectural structure will never be truly enjoyed without the enhancement that lighting provides.

IESNA meetings are for you, your employees and clients. You will learn the most current ideas and products that will assist you and your firm to be more valuable to your clients. We are having a membership drive through the next 12 months. The Invite a Friend Program will be giving away prizes for everyone that enrolls 2 new people into IESNA and a grand prize for the one person that enrolls the most members throughout the next year. Look in the upcoming newsletters for more ideas about our membership drive for IESNA.
