Tour of KUTV Studios / Lunch at Lamb's Restaurant, on Tuesday, September, 13th at 11:30 a.m. we will be taking a tour of the new KUTV Studios in downtown Salt Lake City, followed by lunch at Lamb's Restaurant. This project won the 2005 IIDA Award for outstanding lighting design by Jody Good of Spectrum Engineers. Jody will be guiding us through the facility and explaining the lighting design aspects of this state-of-the-art television studio. All attendees shall meet in the lobby of the Wells Fargo Center at 11:30 am. The Wells Fargo Center is located at 299 South Main Street (NE corner of 300 South Main Street). However, it would be better to park at the Walker Center parking structure which is accessed via Regent Street (40 East) from 200 South. Lamb's Restaurant is located on Main Street at the bottom of the Walker Center.

There will be NO fee required to attend this tour! However, each person shall purchase their own meals at Lamb's. Please RSVP to Tom Phelps at 328-8745 if you'd like to attend or if you have any questions.

LC Exam Study Group

Several local lighting professionals are planning to take the LC exam this November and have decided to coordinate a study group for anyone that will be sitting for the exam. Mark Barton from Commercial Lighting Supply has volunteered to head up this group and hold the study sessions in their conference room, if desired. Mark can be reached at 262-0888 to sign up for the study group. If you were considering taking the LC exam, this would be a great year! There are already enough people signed up to have Salt Lake City selected as one of the testing locations, so no travel would be involved. Also, this is last year that the NCQLP will be conducting the audio conferences as part of the Self Study Guide package. So with the addition of this local study group, there's never been a better time to take the LC exam!
